The Presenter

Paul Sadler | Paul Sadler Consultancy

Paul Sadler is an experienced leader and influencer who brings an extensive range of experience from more than 38 years in the aged care sector. Paul has been a national and state CEO of aged care industry associations, CEO of a major aged care provider, and influencer of ageing policy, disability and community care programs for both national and state governments.

Since 2021, Paul has run his own consultancy, Paul Sadler Consultancy and in November 2023, he co-founded Invox. He was CEO Aged and Community Services Australia (ACSA) from September 2021 to October 2022 and was instrumental in the establishment of the new Aged and Community Care Providers Association (ACCPA). From June to October 2022, he was ACCPA Interim CEO. Paul was the CEO of Presbyterian Aged Care NSW and ACT from April 2007 to March 2021.

Before that, Paul was CEO of Aged and Community Services NSW and ACT, held various positions on ageing and disability issues in the NSW Government, including Manager of HACC (Home and Community Care) and Ageing Programs, and worked as a social worker with frail older people, people with disabilities and their carers.
